

WARNING ORDERS EYNHAM IN OXFORDSHIRE

This is a FULL society event.

DATE: 3rd July 2010

PLACE: Eynsham Carnival, Oxford Road, Eynsham, Oxfordshire,
Post code: OX29 4HG

LOCATION SITE ACCESS:

The village is located just off the A40, midway between the city of Oxford and Witney town. The field for the family camp is next door to the event field with access through. ACWS signs will be put up as usual. There are several takeaway food places and 8 pubs in the village

ARRIVAL TIME: Lunchtime Friday 2nd July 2010

REGISTRATION FEE: £6

LIVING HISTORY : noon until 6.00 pm.

SKIRMISH/BATTLE TIME: Two 30min skirmishes at 3.30pm and 5.00pm (these are subject to change)

BREAK CAMP: After 6.00pm on Saturday with camping until lunchtime Sunday 4th July 2010.

EXTRA SPECIAL ACTIVITY TIMES:

There will be a short Parade through the village at 1.00 pm. It would be nice to have the Drum Corps to lead us on parade as they did at Market Deeping.

There will be ample opportunity for Living History scenarios throughout the day.

With a possible 10,000 visitors there is plenty of recruitment potential.

Income from the Eynsham carnival is donated to the parent bodies who are the Royal British Legion, Eynsham Scouting and St Leonard's Church.

The Eynsham Carnival is one of the oldest carnivals in the country. Beginning after the Second World War, the annual Eynsham Carnival, held in July. The Eynsham Carnival is now in it's 62nd year.